When an LA County Sheriff First Responder watches his family, his job and the lives of those he's on a mission to save be ripped away, he comes face to face with the ultimate decision of his own mortality, forced to choose between taking his life ... or seeking help from the Giver of it.

SYNOPSIS

In the heat of a summer swelter, decorated Sheriff's Deputy, Sergeant John Scott, faces the ultimate test of faith vs. fatality after losing grip of his family, his career and the lives of those he could not save in the line of duty. A grueling divorce, with the threat of losing his children starts the spiral downward. Watching his mentor and partner perish in flames, just out of John's reach, and onslaught of daily First Responder calls; vicious attacks from the sinister streets, media altering narratives of his arresting tactics in protecting the innocent, sifts a spiral suicide-bound. On the brink of hell, John finds himself on the run through a desert night, just he, and his gun. The dark closing in and the snakes of the sand slithering at his soul, John has two options: Pull the trigger on his existence, or look up, past the stars, for help from the eternal. When an earlier suspect John set free arrives mysteriously at his side, revealing his heavenly identity as John's Guardian Angel, John's prayers are answered in the incredible revealing of all the souls he touches daily, and that lasting impact on all those lives worth living ... especially his own.
